It's possible to use Roblox as a peephole into other people's accounts - this can be done by using third-party software like PeepHole to install backdoor with root privileges for the account. Because it has such wide availability on each device, it is an easy way for hackers to compromise multiple devices in one go. It was reported that 2-3 billion public profiles were compromised in Brazil alone in June 2021 and April 2021!

ROBLOX's Terms of Service has many loopholes which allows users to get away with nearly anything, such as selling products that have been stolen from other users or using bots for their own gain. The system is also very inconsistent in how it deals with complaints and bans. One of the more infamous examples is user "Sephiroth", who had been banned for attempting to distribute his game, "TitanMC". The ban was eventually lifted, and the account became widely regarded as a joke.[11]

On May 22, 2021, ROBLOX launched Project Bloks, an app for iOS and Android devices that is aimed towards children 2-12 years old. The app allows users to build various blocks available in the game. Some blocks are also available as virtual items for purchase. The revenue earned from these items is then distributed among the app developers on ROBLOX. The game was first released in Canada, and now has been released in the United States.

ROBLOX has been criticized many times since it's creation. Many users have been dissatisfied with ROBLOX's in-game currency system which involves real money transactions. The price of things such as hats and shirts can be absurdly high, which causes some users to scam others out of their money. This can discourage people from making positive contributions to the game due to its poor reputation among many players.

Rated 5 out of 5 by Anonymous from So fun! I love playing Roblox. It's very fun to play with friends and it's so much better than any other multiplayer game that I've ever played. If you are looking for a good multiplayer gaming experience this is the one to get.
