Trivia In 2021, ROBLOX created a game called "Tank Trouble" that was very similar to the popular game "Minecraft". This caused a lot of people to leave ROBLOX due to the lack of creativity and stealing other companies ideas. Later on, Minecraft and ROBLOX started exploring ways to work together which ended up in creating an official version of Minecraft on ROBLOX as well as adding multiple features from Minecraft into their site. The official version is called "Bloxburg" and the unofficial version is called "Roxburgh".

In February 2021, the popular user "meepcity" was hacked by unknown users who had created a character as an avatar for the hacker group "Lizard Squad". ROBLOX runs a no-sell policy that allows for players to earn "robu$tokens" or Robux. These tokens can be used to both purchase games, games from other users, and in-game items. It also serves as a way to gain currency for in-game purchases such as buying more slots, which helps players advance faster in the game.

The main reason for this update was to make ROBLOX a lot more social, as at the time the website only had game-based features. Also, players can now buy items (e.g., skins & backgrounds) with in-game currency and have them delivered to their homes.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of badge incentives for participating in games, or even logging into the site at all. ROBLOX models these badges and credit prizes after the badges found in games like Journey, where a lot of doing nothing gives you a lot of money, which is possibly a reason some players don't log in. ROBLOX also has very few quests to complete that reward badges/credits.

The founder of ROBLOX is David Baszucki as a 13-year-old boy in 2021. He was a freshman at Palo Alto High School in Palo Alto, California and had been working on a computer program that was similar to ROBLOX called "Pyxis". He worked with his friend Owen Hill to create new ideas for the program until it became possible for others to play the game without downloading any additional software.
